LIGHTE & BRADBURY'S, Manufacturers of Grand and Square PIANO-FORTES, constructed in the improved and elegant style of their machinery, so prepared to receive advance orders for these graceful and elegant instruments. The demand has heretofore been far beyond our ability to supply, and for most of the time past we have had to decline many of these orders. The original shape of the Brigg's Pianoforte, or Violin Piano, and it closely approximates, not only in the principles of its construction, but in its shape, to the violin, the most perfect, becoming instrument ever invented.
It is a vibratory shell, free from all strain of the strings, and the oval shape retains more perfectly the vibratory circle, sustaining the tones with wonderful purity, and making the instrument more responsive and pleasant. Waterworks, No.
11 Broadway, between 14th and 15th Streets.

S. B. DRIGGS, Inventor and Patenter.
